

World War 1

Art

Can you create an image of a poppy to depict the war? Be creative and use different materials, colours, tones and textures. Research the poppy - how many different interpretations of the poppy can you find? Here are some I found:

PSHE

As part of our work on WW1 we will be taking part in the remembrance service at Lowe house church. Can you write about remembrance and why it is important to remember those who fought and died in the war?

Grammar

An element of our narrative writing this term is to write in the correct tense. Practise writing sentences, in the 1st person, in the past, present and future tense. E.g. Lacey walked cautiously towards the enormous boat. (Past tense.)

History

Create a fact file about WW1. Consider:

Who was Franz Ferdinand?

Who was involved (countries) and why?

Where did the war take place?

Who were the main leaders?

What evidence do we have to tell us about WW1?

Maths - Place value

Can you estimate and then find out how many soldiers were killed during world war 1? Can you also find out how many soldiers fought in WW1 and then work out how many survived?

How long ago was WW1? Would anyone from WW1 be alive now?

English (Punctuation)

Write a paragraph about the inside of a trench using the following punctuation in the correct places:

- ✓ Exclamation mark
- ✓ Commas in a list
- ✓ Question mark
- ✓ Inverted commas (speech marks)

D.T

Can you design your own trench?

You could make a model of a trench or draw a labelled detailed diagram of the different parts.
